Commissioners Take Steps Toward Taxable Values In Randall County

At the regular monthly meeting of the Commissioners Court Monday valuation of county property was changed in order to meet the criticism which had been directed at these values on the tax rolls of Randall county.

Irrigation land was set at $10 per acre.

Dry land farms were set at $6 to $7 per acre.

Grazing land was set at from $2 to $5 per acre.

The court will take into consideration the location, improvements, and kind of soil in setting the values on property.

The court decided on a number of changes in order to equalize values between city and country

Find Drowning Victim's Body

The body of Vincent Johnson, an Amarillo Air Force Base Airman, was found in Buffalo Lake Friday night at 11 o'clock. The 23-year-old Airman drowned Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock while swimming in the lake.

High winds were blowing up choppy waves on the lake when Johnson attempted to swim from a boat on the south shore of the lake. The boat was being manned by a companion of Johnson's. When Johnson called out for help his companion tried to get to him in the boat but the high winds and choppy waves prevented him from reaching the drowning man in time to save his life.

Sheriff L. S. Johnston was in charge of the rescue party from the time the young Airman was reported drowned until the body was recovered. Mr. Johnston states that he is very grateful for all of the help which he received and that which was offered. All boat owners in Canyon, Amarillo and Hereford responded to the call for help. The fire departments of Canyon and Amarillo furnished hooks and portable lights with which work was carried on for the rescue. It was one of the finest examples of humanitarian response that he ever witnessed," stated Mr. Johnston. "The boys who worked for a day and two nights deserve all of the prize that can be given," concluded his statement.

C-C Helps Obtain Livestock Feed

The Chamber of Commerce sent a telegram to Congressman Walter Rogers Friday night in an attempt to get relief feed for the farmers and cattlemen in this vicinity. The livestock feed shortage has become so acute that some livestock are being grazed along the highway right-of-way.

The Chamber of Commerce was called in an attempt to get quick action on the livestock feed situation. Many farmers and cattlemen said they could not hold out another ten days without stock feed.

Family Reunion Held by Dr. and Mrs. Hill

The children of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill are at home this week enjoying a family reunion with their parents.

Attending the family gathering are two sons, Davis Hill of Galveston, and family; Joe Hill of Columbus, Ohio, and family; and daughter, Mrs. Marion Hill of Borger and family.

Paving Started On City Alleys

Work is underway paving the alley south of the First National Bank, and extending for one block west.

The city is building a new sidewalk crossing approaching the bank building to the south, and a new approach to the east is under construction. A paving contractor from Amarillo will do the paving job of the alley.

Mayor Andy Walsh states that paving will continue east for two blocks and perhaps other alleys will be added to the paving project.

property. The difference in values was called to the attention of the court by a delegation of South Amarillo citizens which had been before the court.

The court will continue its work of equalizing values, but no specific date for the meeting has been set.

Tentatively, the same tax rate as last year has been set as a basis for collection in 1953. This rate is 92 cents on the $100 valuation for general county purposes; 30 cents for the special road and bridge fund which was voted by the taxpayers several years ago. The water district has increased its rate from three cents which was collected last year to five cents on the $100 valuation for the coming year.

Randall county collected $741.74 for this district last year, and according to Bill Money, tax collector, the extra work entailed in this collection cost the county at least $2,000. However, under the law, the county has this money to collect and there is no way to avoid this additional expense.

The state will not set its tax rate until July.

New Signal Light Raised on Hiway

A new traffic light was installed last week at the intersection of Highway 87 and Fourth Avenue. City Secretary Dudley Bayne said this light was 3½ feet higher than the old light. It was raised to this level in order to prevent high trucks from hitting it.

Bayne said new controls were also installed in order to assure proper functioning of the light. The old one sometimes failed to function properly.

A number of times the old light was struck by high trucks. Just recently it was hit and turned at such an angle that cars stopped for the opposite traffic to move could not tell where the light was changed. Officials hope they will have no more trouble with the light being hit by trucks nor the confusion of faulty controls.

July Fourth To Be Observed as Holiday in City

July Fourth comes on Saturday of next week. However, practically all business houses have agreed to close for the day in observance of the holiday.

Roland Black, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, states that when he was making the survey for Memorial Day closing that practically all business houses stated that they would be closed in observance of July Fourth. Therefore, says Roland, he will make no further canvass but will take it for granted that July Fourth will be a generally recognized holiday in Canyon.

Burleson Drills Test Holes Before Starting on Irrigation Wells

J. A. Buleson has moved from Lubbock to Canyon and started drilling irrigation wells for farmers and land owners in this section of the Panhandle. Mr. Burleson operates under the name of the Burleson Drilling Company.

Two weeks ago on a hot Sunday afternoon, Mr. Burleson arrived in Canyon looking for a house to rent. He called the Newsman at his home and asked where he could get a copy of the current issue of the paper. We made a hurried trip down town; furnished the paper; and he soon rented a house to suit his needs.

Burleson produces irrigation wells under different conditions from the usual driller. He knows nothing of geology, but has made a study of water formations. He has been in the irrigation water business since World War I and during these years has gathered a lot of information about underground structures.

Before he starts drilling an irrigation well he drills a test hole, studying the formation as he progresses. Due to his long experience in the study of formations, he will tell the farmer whether or not he can get an irrigation well near the test hole. He does not believe in the processes used by water witches. He has the theory that water is where you find it, but from his study of formations of the Panhandle, he knows pretty well in advance where there are favorable formations. Glacier formations were left in

Frank Culp Has Delivered First Wheat in Happy

First wheat of the 1953 crop was delivered in Happy by a Randall County farmer.

The wheat, delivered by Frank Culp who farms nine miles northeast of Happy, was cut from an irrigated and fertilized field which promises to yield 40 bushels to the acre.

The 67 bushels delivered was cut from approximately 1½ acres of an 80-acre patch, Culp said. The grain tested 61 pounds to the bushel.

"Farmers here expect to harvest 'mighty little' wheat except from irrigated land. Much of the wheat acreage has been abandoned and some which has been left standing will not be worth cutting, farmers said.

Boy Scouts Raise Jamboree Fund

Boy Scouts are trying to send at least two members to the Third National Boy Scout Jamboree at Irvine Ranch near Santa Ana, Cal., this year. The Jamboree begins July 17 at 9 o'clock, and will last through July 23.

The Olympic Theater is showing a special show to help the boys raise money for the trip. The troop hopes to send several boys to this national affair, which is an education within itself.

The picture scheduled to be shown for the benefit of the Scouts is "The Happy Years," a technicolor movie which was acclaimed one of the top pictures of 1950.

The star of the movie which depicts school days is Dean Stockwell. He is supported by Darryl Hickman and Scotty Beckett.

Tickets are now on sale by the Boy Scouts. If you are unable to attend the movie you might know some child who would enjoy seeing it, and the money would be given to a worthy cause.

Activities for the Jamboree will begin with the raising of Old Glory July 17. A number of special events and programs, such as Monty Montana, famous Western movie star, heading a rodeo, colorful trick riding, and a fireworks display. Scouts will also enjoy a trek westward to the Pacific Ocean in prairie schooners like their pioneer forefathers.

One of the highlights of the Jamboree will be the appearance of Roy Rogers, "king of the cowboys," and Trigger, his horse.

Scouts will leave here July 11 and return July 28. The boys and their leaders will travel by special train and see points of interest in Arizona, California, Utah, and Colorado.

The local troop is sending two Scouts, probably more, to the jamboree. Fee for those attending is payable in three installments at the district office in the Johnson building in Amarillo.

Walter Rogers Sends Reply To C-C Telegram

Roland Black, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, has received two telegrams from Congressman Walter Rogers in answer to a telegram sent by the local organization Friday, June 12. The first brief telegram from Mr. Rogers arrived on Monday, June 15, and told of the arrangements being made for an early meeting of several members of congress with officials of the Department of Agriculture.

A second telegram came Wednesday, June 17, which explained a meeting held for emergency action on drought relief. The telegram read that the Budget Bureau is now weighing the possibilities of using the Presidential emergency fund under Public Law 875 of the 81st Congress for early relief of the situation.

In addition, the Department of Agriculture is weighing the extent of its authority in farmers home administration loan programs, and credit loan action is hoped for and also expected. Mr. Rogers promised the local Chamber of Commerce that he would inform it of any new developments. He recommended that all counties make application to Governor Allan Shivers setting forth the disaster situation in this area so that the governor can certify to the President the specific need of the area for immediate relief as required under Public Law 875.

Dollar Day To Come Next Week

Next week, July 3, will be the regular monthly Dollar Day in Canyon. Business houses are advised to prepare their copy for their specials for the day and advertise them in The Canyon News next week.

Typhoid Victims Recovering at Their Homes

Rev. T. Winston Wilbanks and Lawrence Boehning, typhoid victims, have been taken to their homes from the hospital where they were under treatment for typhoid. They were free of fever for a week before being allowed to leave their rooms. Both are recovering nicely from the effects of the disease.

Jack Wyatt, city chemist of Amarillo, made a thorough test of water in Canyon and at the Boehning farm, which disclosed that there were no typhoid germs present in either place.

Both of the men had returned from trips to other parts of the Southwest before they were taken down with the typhoid and it is now well established that they contracted the disease at other places than in Canyon.

Bobby Money Died Suddenly at Des Moines, New Mexico

Bobby Money, 33, died suddenly of a heart attack at noon Wednesday. The family has lived at Des Moines, N. M., for several years where Mr. Money owns an 8,000-acre ranch well stocked with Herefords.

The funeral was held Saturday at Des Moines, at the Church of Christ.

The deceased was a former Canyon boy, being the son of Mrs. Elsie Money. He is survived also by three brothers, Bill and Ed Money, both of Canyon; and Charles Money, of Walsenburg, Colo.; his wife and two sons, Jimmy, 8, and Charlie D., 3 years old, live on the ranch in Des Moines.

Bill Money was in Colorado when word was received of the death of his brother. He had been called there by the illness of his son-in-law, Lonnie Woody Dumas, who suffered a heart attack while on a vacation trip with his wife.

Box of Soap Pays Mrs. Richardson Big Return

Investing in a box of White King soap at Taylor & Sons big country store paid big dividends for Mrs. Newton Richardson last week. When she answered the knock of the White King soap man last week she found that she must have a box of White King soap in the house to be eligible for the prize-winning question. She had the soap.

The question was: Who wrote Hamlet? She also had the answer to that and the prize was a $299.95 automatic washer. Because she bought the soap at Taylor & Sons they gave her a $7.45 sani-can for the disposal of kitchen garbage.

Mrs. Richardson, who lives in Canyon off and on since 1947. Mr. Richardson is principal of the Clarendon Junior High School. The couple is living here this summer and Mrs. Richardson, who has taught school, is working on her masters degree at West Texas State.

At present Mrs. Richardson is not making specific plans to return to teaching immediately. She is planning to remain at home with her two daughters, one 15 and the other nearly 2.

The automatic washer will be brought here until the Richardsons return to their teaching job in Clarendon. Then they will take the washer home with them. Mrs. Richardson said she did not have an automatic washer.

Seek New Name For Highway 87

Chambers of Commerce in towns on Highway 87 are getting behind a move to officially name the highway the Henry Ford Memorial Highway. In some instances newspaper editors are also boosting the move. They point out the vast importance of the model T Ford in the development of the present economy of this country.

There are still people living who remember when Highway 87 went through ranchland and pastures. In fact, there are people living who helped get cattle guards along the highway instead of gates to hold the cattle on their respective ranches.

Highway 87 was formerly the Puget Sound-to-Gulf highway but present boosters believe that Henry Ford Memorial Highway would be a more fitting name for it. The highway has grown from a small, winding pioneer trail to a wide modern road with four lanes in some places. Work is being done to make it a four lane route all the way. By giving the highway a Ford name would be linking the product with a progress that it helped develop.

Miniature Train in Palo Duro State Park Adds to Pleasure of Visitors

The trains are rolling in the Palo Duro State Park!

The miniature train which was brought from Illinois to the Palo Duro State Park has been put into use, and the wonders of the Park are now available to visitors who do not care to walk or climb in order to see the Park.

D. C. Grear, father of one of the operators of the train, is here for a short time from his home in Southern Illinois, to assist in getting the sightseeing train into operation. Grear was a daily newspaper publisher in his native state. His family had owned newspapers in Union County since 1849, but due to his health and the help situation he was forced to sell during World War II.

The train is attracting considerable attention among visitors at the Palo Duro State Park. John

Past Records of Weather Fall

This is the year when records of all kinds are falling by the score. It is the hottest period in history. It is the driest period in history. The drought covers the largest area and is the most severe in history.

The high temperature day by day has fallen as the sun pours down on the dry earth.

Coupled with this is the low temperature of the night times when the mercury has hit the lowest periods.

The rainfall so far this year has measured only 4.63 inches, making it the driest year of this region. The drought covers an area of about 400 miles east and west and extends north and south about 1000 miles.

The ending? Your guess is as good as the next fellow's.

Work Progresses On Dial System

Before too many months now Canyon people can pick up their telephone and use the dial system instead of calling the operator. Workers were coming along nicely on the job of getting the building up near the end of last week. The heat was so intense that a man with a watering hose was kept busy wetting the brick down for the brickmasons to work with.

The walls of the building are one foot thick and in some places have three layers of brick. The building should be completed so that the company can move into it about mid-July.

All of the equipment the telephone company will need for its work in the building will be installed as soon as the building is finished. The building is 40'x70' structure and will house the company's equipment, switchboard and office space. The dial system is expected to go into operation early in November of this year.

Water Situation Is Good, Thanks To Co-operation

The water situation in Canyon is good, stated Mayor Andy Walsh Monday.

Mr. Walsh states that the City Commission is very grateful to the people of Canyon for their fine co-operation in handling the water situation.

Last week warning was issued of the water situation, which could lead to a serious situation unless the regulations are carefully observed by all of the citizens of Canyon.

These regulations are simple:

1. Do not waste water at any time.

2. Do not irrigate between 8 o'clock in the evening and 5 o'clock in the morning.

3. Stop all irrigation if and when the fire alarm sounds, thus conserving water for fire fighting.

The water tanks gained a little storage over the week-end, and should continue to gain unless water is wasted or there is a big fire.

In the meanwhile, every precaution is being taken by the city to avoid the waste of water and destruction of property by needless fires.

Mr. Walsh repeats his statement of last week:

"There is no critical water shortage, and with careful use we should have none if the city wells hold up to present levels. But the supply is not sufficient to use without care. Your co-operation will help all of us to have water for reasonable needs."

That the rainfall has much to do with the water consumption is carried out by the following information collected by Dudley Bayne, city secretary, from records on file at The News office:

Year	Gallons	Inches of Rain
1939	90,700,000	16.32
1940	92,470,000	13.87

Another Drawing To Be Saturday

Retail Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will conduct the cash prize drawing Saturday. Some trouble has been encountered in getting the tickets for the merchants to give customers. Because of this, the drawings are now being held every other week instead of each week.

Saturday's first prize will be $100 as usual. Second prize will be $25, and the third prize will be $50. This is the $25 consolation prize that was not claimed the last time there was a drawing plus the $25 that will be added to it Saturday. There will be only one drawing for this final prize and if it is not claimed, the consolation purse will be $75 for the next drawing.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Filling the Newspapers Is Job Of the Space Grafters of Nation

There are a hundred and one persons scattered throughout the nation who are greatly interested in the welfare of the readers of The Canyon News.

We know this because we are told this story week after week by the fellows who put us on the back, wish us well, and then try to slip in a boost for their products. They send us editorials which are written much better than we can write—but they are full of propaganda for this or that product.

We wish that we could list and publish the names of all of these good wishers, and the names of all those who would furnish us "free of cost" something which is a sure shot to bring the dollars rolling into the office, and cause the readers to line up and demand a continuation of the dope which is dished out by these representatives of the product.

All of this dope is free advertising to the manu- facturers, who are trying to get into the columns of the newspapers of the land without paying advertising rates.

Maybe The Canyon News is just a little more scrupulous than these fakers are wise. We are of the opinion that the business interests of this com- munity, the fellows who keep our paper going, are entitled to protection against such classes of grafters who would like to see their names or the names of their products in print. We have never knowingly published these free puffis and never intend using one of them.

We thank you, but we can fill the columns of this paper with news about Randall county people. And this editorial column, as weak and rambling as it may be is not for sale to any person or persons, either in any or in any other part of the world. We have always reserved the right to write in such a manner as we please on this page, and will continue doing so, regardless of those who would improve the page with a lot of propaganda.

Justice Douglas Kept the Spy Case Alive on Technical Charge

We have yet to find any person who is sympathetic with the ideas of Justice William O. Douglas, who alone is responsible for stirring up the Rosenberg case after it has been reviewed by all courts in the nation and even the President of the United States.

Douglas takes the position that he alone is the only man capable of passing judgment as to the innocence or guilt of the condemned pair of scoundrels who sold out their nation to the commies.

Douglas claims that the trial judge had no authority to pass judgment and pronounce the death sentence. It matters not how many American boys have been killed, or what the damages may result as to the treachery of the pair; even the lives of members of the Supreme Court could be snuffed out by atomic bombs, made as the result of the disloyalty of the pair. There are a lot of folks in this community who hope that Justice Douglas will be among the first to feel the effects of the work of this pair, whom he is now trying to defend.

We shall see what the House of Representatives will do about the impeachment charges which have been filed against Justice Douglas.

Incidentally, this case and the former antics of Justice Tom Clark in passing tax cases while he was attorney general have set the Supreme Court at a pretty low ebb in the minds of the people of the United States. The people would like to look with respect upon the Supreme Court, but how can we while such men occupy the highest bench in the world?

What! No Prizes This Year at Texas Press Association Meet!

What "no prizes?"

The Newsmen returned from the State Convention of the Texas Press Association held in Mineral Wells last week completely empty handed. We did not win a single prize!

According to the official records, we should not have won this year, and sure enough this prediction held true. We have been sending copies of The Canyon News to the state contests for a number of years, and have usually returned with some kind of a prize. Whether justly received, or just by the turn of luck makes no difference. We have won in the past, but very frankly did not expect to win this year. It would be carrying our luck too far to expect to win every year.

So far as a good newspaper is concerned, we do not need a prize to keep up the inducement of publishing a first class newspaper. We shall continue just as we have in the past—come drought, rain, hail, sleet, snow, or high winds.

Move On Unless You Like the Country Says Pioneer Citizen

A Canyon citizen gives this advice:

"If you don't like our country, move on. It has always rained in the Panhandle; there have always been dust storms; there have been occasional de- pressions—the same as other parts of the nation have had; there is plenty of room for forward looking citizens—but no room for the adherents!"

Pretty good advice after all. You know, a dozen influential citizens who are now in the dumps, and who walk the streets, talking and complaining about conditions can bring on worst conditions.

On the other hand the same dozen citizens, who greet their customers with a smile and a cheery greet- ing, no matter how hard conditions may be, can keep the atmosphere so clear that business will be good; and people will feel prosperous, regardless of conditions.

Cheer up! It is not half as hard as most people think!

Recent studies show newspaper advertising is the bargain of the advertising world. If you have some- thing to sell, move it by letting The Canyon News sell it for you.

Queen Logic Evolved by Loyal Democrats on Cross Filing

Queer opinions persist among the folks who try to rule the people by force of party loyalty.

The Canyon News expressed the opinion recently that so far as we were concerned, it made no difference what the election filing laws of Texas. Here comes one of the "Loyalty-to-Truman" bunch, who ridicules this idea and says that the force of Governor Shivers was thrown behind the move to defeat the efforts of the "Loyal (?) Democrats," who were seeking the repeal of this means of filing. It is speculated that Shivers will be a candidate for the Senate against Senator Lyndon Johnson. Yet, on the other hand it is speculated that he will ask for a third term as Gov- ernor of Texas. This adherent to the single shot filing is of the opinion that the present law will be a distinct advantage to Shivers, but against the race of Johnson.

Why? We don't know. We remind you once more that it made little difference as to how the candidates were running in 1952; the people were for Eisenhower and against Truman, who was running Governor Stevenson.

The state of affairs are such since January that the Democrats in Congress have upheld the legisla- tion supported by the President. He is backed by Truman and by Stevenson; the President is rejected by many of his own party.

It is putting the intelligence of the voters of Texas on a pretty low basis to say that they will not and cannot vote for a mixed ticket, as loyal as the loyalty group professes to be.

Russians Will Not Make War Is Words of Jurist of Amarillo

When we get to feeling pretty low about Russia, we are happy to have a man like Judge W. N. Stokes of Amarillo come along and give us a shot in the arm.

We have always maintained that Russia was too near poverty to be much of a fighting nation.

Here comes the distinguished jurist to say that we shall not have a shooting war with Russia, but this is no excuse for us to let down the bars, and not be ready to fight whomever the Russians urge to make war upon us.

Russia will fight us to the last Chinese, but that is all. Russians love their soil and will fight to preserve and hold the soil, but they are not interested in fighting us just for the sake of extending the borders of their domain.

The Judge believes that we are handling the situation in Asia and Europe as well as these con- ditions warrant. But we shall never allow the mil- itary of America to let the bars down and bring the boys home until we know that all borders of Russia are closed against Communism. The Kremlin bor- ders are wonderful evangelists and know how to make our nation appear in the worst possible light.

Federal Control Fought by Cow Man in Highly Laudable Position

We are all against federal controls—that is, unless we get caught in an unsumountable condition when it becomes necessary for us to get along without these controls.

The cattlemen of the Southwest are opposed to federal interference with their business, and have spoken violently against such controls.

But conditions change. When the government shipped huge quantities of grain to a small nation which we wished to get on our team to fight the commies, when the drought, wiped out feed in the Southwest, the cry was raised, and pretty soon, that Uncle Sam had so much grain to ship abroad, he could allow the cattlemen of this section to buy feed at reduced rates, and Uncle Sam could afford to loan money at low rates to those who are hit by the drought.

It is a fair situation when the government can be as fair to the folks at home as it is to those who live far away. Yet it is entirely human nature to treat those at a distance more favorably than we do the home folks—especially when we attempt to buy the goodwill of nations against the commies.

OUR NEW TEXAS LAWS
By John Ben Shepperd
Attorney General of Texas

In a previous article mentioned that the new election filing laws of Texas. (4) Requiring each county of less than 10,000 population to have a Tax-Assessor and Collector, begin- ning January 1, 1955.

(5) Permitting employees of the State and political subdivisions to be under the old age and survivors insurance of the Federal Social Security.

A Small Claims Court with re- duced expenses and costs was cre- ated to handle claims up to $50; or, where a dispute is over wages or salaries, the claim can be as much as $100. The Justice of the Peace serves as the judge of this court.

There were also a number of new laws concerning juries and jury service. Only dentists, doc- tors, and attorneys in active prac- tice may be exempt from jury service. (formerly 21 different oc- cupational groups could be ex- cused.) Jurors in the county and district grand jurors will not receive between $4 and $5 per day, the exact amount set by the county commissioners' court.

The commissioners' court may also provide that jurors in doing cases be fed and lodged by the sheriff in addition to receiving pay for their services. Changes were made in the amount of money collected by justices of the peace, the county courts and county courts at law.

When stock is found running at large they can be impounded and the owner required to pay a new fee for the keeping of the animals. The fee is graduated from 15c to $1 per head per day depending upon the type animal and whether impounded by a public pound or private individual.

It is now a criminal offense for cattle to be on a state or national highway. The provisions for stock law elections were also revised to permit elections concerning the confinement of a particular class of animal.

A number of changes were made in local government. A total of 126 laws were passed dealing with counties and county officers while 52 laws were passed dealing with municipalities; and 54 bills dealt with schools and universities.

Bills on water, municipalities, counties and schools made up a little more than 50% so that if a number of bills sent to the Gov- ernor for signature.

In these articles I have attempt- ed to list the bills which, although important, have almost escaped notice. I cannot close without not- ing that of the 41 bills submitted to our office for opinions, almost half were held void for legal rea- sons.

I would recommend that the fol- lowing steps be adopted by the Legislature to avoid legal pitfalls: (1) Submit all bills to the Leg- islative Council or other technical agency by November 15 before the January sessions, so that they could be printed and checked before the session by members and by the Attorney General.

(2) Print all debate by the mem- bers for later reference by the Legislature, the courts and the Attorney General. Only in this manner can the true legislative intent be determined.

(3) Take a two-week mid-session recess to return home and consult voters in their districts on major issues.

(A copy of any bill which you might desire may be obtained from the office of the Secretary of State, Austin, Texas.)

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

YANKEE HERITAGE

YANKEE WIT—TERSE, TANGY—A HERITAGE FROM THE COLONIAL DAYS WHEN WE WERE DEVELOPING A FOOTHOLD ON THE ATLANTIC SEABOARD, HAS MERGED WITH THE WIT OF OTHER SECTIONS IN THE SENSE OF HUMOR, IN WHICH ALL AMERICANS TAKE PRIDE TODAY.

Similarly, Yankee Thrift—born of the hard necessities of colonial times—has come down to us in the habit of American families of setting something aside from today's earnings, for tomorrow's use.

BOYCE HOUSE

Everyone knows that Aaron Burr was almost elected vice president of the United States though the ma- jority of the people wanted him for vice president and Thomas Jefferson for president. But the constitution said that the man re- ceiving the highest number of elec- toral votes should be president and the one receiving the second highest, vice president. The re- sult was a tie and the election was thrown into the House of Repre- sentatives.

Judge Ralph Yarborough of Aus- tin, a student of American history, relates that the man who broke the tie was born in Ireland and, in order to pay his passage to America, sold his service for a term of years. He was elected to congress from Vermont, was in- dicted under the notorious sedition act for remarks about President John Adams and was found guilty. While in jail, he was re-elected to Congress and to pay his fine so he would be set free, the Dem- crats of Virginia sent a man on horseback with $1,000 in gold.

On the 36th ballot, the other Congressman from Vermont, a Fed- eralist, absented himself and this Congressman then cast Vermont's vote for Jefferson for president.

The Constitution has of course since been changed so that the electors clearly vote for one man for president and another for vice president.

Embarrassing moment: In the summer of 1836, I was publicity director for the Fort Worth Casa Manana, of which Billy Rose was the producer. He asked me to help him with a three-minute talk. "That would be about 500 words as the average man talks at the rate of 140 words a minute," and there I remembered that, in his youth, Rose had been champion shorthand writer of the world and therefore probably knew about as much con- cerning the rate of human utter- ance as anybody, myself included. Factually and surprisingly for the voluble Billy), he was silent.

I have figured out what Ph.D. means: "Phenomenally dull."

First Methodist Church Sanctuary Setting For Hill-Dowell Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. CHESTER DOWELL

At 7:30 on the evening of Thursday, June 18, Mary Ruth Hill, daughter of Mrs. Ruth A. Hill, became the bride of Chester Marvin Dowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dowell of Iowa Park. Rev. Hubert Thomson of Amarillo read the lovely double ring rites in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church of Canyon at a satin draped altar flanked by basket of green foliage, gladioli, and candelabra.

Miss Donna Erwin sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" as pre-nuptial solos and as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Miss Ruth Ann Soll at the organ, who also played "Wedding March" from Lohengrin, by Waggoner as the processional; "Wedding March" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn as recessional and "Clair de Lune" as a musical background to the service.

As candelights Miss Nancy Adcock, cousin of the bride, and Miss Ava Dooley were identical gowns of aqua taffeta and net styled with fitted strapless bodice and full gathered skirts and carried nosegays of yellow shag daisies centered with yellow tapers.

Mrs. Garland Cavitt of Portales, New Mexico, as matron of honor for her sister was gowned in yellow taffeta and net fashioned with a fitted strapless bodice and full skirt with rhinestone trim. To complete her costume she wore a matching stole and bandeau of yellow net with rhinestone trim. Her bouquet was of lavender shag daisies. Miss Teddie Howell as bridesmaid was gowned in lavender taffeta and net fashioned identical to that of the maid of honor. Her bouquet was a nosegay of yellow shag daisies.

Austin Bowes of Kress served as best man. Dennis Walling of Seymour was groomsman. Lowell Hill, brother of the bride, Garland Cavitt, brother-in-law of the bride, Troy Burrus, and Garland Rattan of Matador were ushers.

Entering on the arm of her uncle, Clarence Adcock, who gave her in marriage, the bride was gowned in white imported tulle

Personal Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Other hostesses with Miss Zachry were Fay Bosley, Sue Miller, Suzanne Barrett, Dorothy Dunivan, Chloe Ann Black, Mary Sue Dodgins, and Mabel Ann Graham.

The linen draped refreshment table was centered with a most unusual arrangement. A large lace fan formed the highest background for a grouping of turquoise asters and white candles which backed a pair of brocade shoes, a gold evening purse, and a lacy handkerchief.

Dainty sandwiches, stuffed pickles, cookies, and punch were served to the honoree, Mrs. Bryce Slack, Diane Davis, Betty Ross, Craig, Ava Dooley, Beverly Beck, Mildred Carter, Rennie White, Bettie Jean Graham, Janey Bate-man, Dorothy Inman, Ruby Zachry, Mrs. J. A. Edwards by the hostesses.

Scouts Score High Rifle Competition

Troop 66 Scouts who spent last week at Camp Don Harrington are Alan Hanks, James Young, Buzzie Barnhill, Bill Cornette, Bobby Hacker, Bobby Joyner, Joe Bailey, Craig Hinger, and John Winters. The boys slept in tents and ate in the mess hall. Everyone participated in rifle shooting, firing a total of 800 rounds of ammunition.

James Young, Joe Bailey, and Craig Hinger qualified as pro-marksman under the National Rifle Association standards. Alan Hanks qualified for pro-marksman, marksman, marksman first class, and sharpshooter. He is the first boy to qualify as sharpshooter at Scout camp. Other activities of the local Scouts included building a check dam and a monkey bridge.

Barnhill, Winters, Hinger, Joyner, Bailey, and Hacker completed their five mile hike, cooking their lunch on the way. Young and Hanks completed their merit badge work for swimming, life saving, and pioneering. Joyner passed his swimming test, and Craig Hinger passed swimming and life saving.

Troop 66 took first place in contests of pioneer patrol and adventure trail. The team beat all others in the swimming meet by nearly a lap. Friday night the Scouts took first place in stunts.

Edd Pettitt, Troop 66 Scoutmaster, was honored with an anonymous $5 award for exceptional leadership. In one phase of his leadership Pettitt cooked a meal of steak, corn, squash, soup, biscuits, coffee, and cherry cobbler over an open fire. This got him a cooking merit badge, and he was also tapped as a candidate for the Order of the Arrow.

Troop 66 Boy Scouts Downed by Dumas 6-7

A gallant push on the part of Scout Troop 66 brought them just one run shy of tying up the game with Dumas Saturday. The game, played here, ended 6-7 in favor of Dumas. Canyon Scouts were trailing four points when the rally started.

Beginning the last half of the seventh inning, Buzzie Barnhill got a single and was followed by a single by James Young. Gary Shepherd was the victim of a fly ball and Roy Hunter got a hit through first and second which sailed beyond the fielders and Roy went the distance, bringing in the three runs. The next two batters went down swinging.

Leonard Miller pitched the entire game for Canyon, and Donnie Ford caught for five innings. His two inning relief was James Young. Roy Hunter rapped a home run for Canyon in the fifth inning.

Principal players for the Dumas squad were Cariker, pitcher, who served up difficult balls; Ritz, the catcher, and first baseman Watson who got a homer in the sixth.

Canyon line-up included James Young, shortstop, Gary Shepherd, second base, Roy Hunter, center field, Mac Boswell, first base, Leonard Miller, pitcher, Jesse Ogle, third base, Donnie Ford, catcher, Alan Hanks, left field. Bobby Joyner started in right field and was relieved by Buzzie Barnhill.

What does a man want in a wife? Glamour? A good housekeeper? A thrifty stay-at-home? A good mixer? Well, luckily for us women, they don't all want the same thing.

At high noon on one of the hottest days last week, we stopped by a home we'd never been in before. The "lady of the house" was a woman we'd seen at public gatherings and never thought about twice. But in her spic-and-span home that hot day, she was serving cool lunch plates and frosty iced tea to her husband and son with all the dash and pleasure that some women throw into serving the bridge club. She had made the lunch hour a cool respite in the day for her family.

One evening of an equally hot day last week we were invited to supper in the backyard by a couple we know well. The crisp salad, grilled bread and barbecued chickens weren't a bit of trouble, we were assured. And to all appearances it was true. The man-of-the-house, who loves to officiate at the barbecue pit, was basting the half-chickens, and the whole atmosphere was so casual you could forget that a thoughtful wife had done a lot of "making ready" earlier in the day.

Other women who appear non-social have "got that way" because their men prefer thrift to party-giving. And still others, who by nature hate to spend a dime, have learned to dress smartly because their husbands want their wives to be in high fashion.

Fact is, men don't always know what they want. But a wise wife soon figures it out, and sets about cutting her own personality to fit the pattern.

Baptists End Big Bible School

The largest vacation bible school in the recorded history of the First Baptist Church closed with commencement exercises Friday night at 7:30 in the church auditorium. The enrollment for the school this year reached 231. The enrollment for last year was 207 and in 1950 there were 172 enrolled. Even with the temperature at the 100 degree mark, faculty and pupils were faithful, and the attendance averaged 200 daily.

In addition to the program given by the pupils Friday night, there was displayed all of the work which had been done by the pupils during the two weeks. Elementary groups displayed paper work; the junior girls showed basketry and cloth animal-books used in the nursery department of the church; junior boys displayed scottie dogs which served as street number markers in front of their homes, and intermediates displayed leather craft.

Peggy Shero Honored At Personal Shower

Games were enjoyed by the guests. Then gifts were presented to the bride-elect, who opened them and passed them for guests to view.

Refreshments of punch, heart shaped sandwiches, mints, and olives were served from a lace covered table decorated with roses and candles. Gladys Leseberg served at the punch bowl.

Lovely gifts were received from Gladys Leseberg, Mona Beth Gillham, Jo Beth Warren, Ann Holt, Sue Keeling, Frances Pennington, Laura Morris, Louise Hunter, Winnie Fay and Sue Davis, Virginia Holt, Janelda Cunningham, Roberta Grigsby, Patricia Hardaway, Lila Mae Hunter, Doris Mullican, and Wilda Fay Pitt.

AUSTIN: Governor Allan Shivers this week finished a long session of signing bills passed by the Legislature.

The governor's time limit expired June 16 for either signing or vetoing bills.

On a single day, the governor signed 89 bills, including eight designed to carry out his water conservation and drought relief program.

One of the water bills is effective immediately. It creates an anti-pollution advisory council which has the responsibility of studying pollution and working with other agencies to prevent it.

Constituting the council are the state health officer, executive secretary of the game and fish commission, chairman of the board of water engineers, chairman of the railroad commission, and the attorney general.

The other water bills, effective August 26, do these things:

Cancel all water permits which have been unused for 10 years, so that they may be re-assigned;

Specify in detail how public waters of the state may be appropriated;

Provide for the granting of seasonal and temporary water appropriation permits for not to exceed a year;

Give the board of water engineers more authority and empower the board to enforce its orders by legal action;

Reorganize the board of water engineers so as to give the members six-year appointive terms and provide for the services of a professional engineer who will be secretary of the board.

Require an application in writing for appropriation, storage, or diversion of public waters.

Create a state water resources committee of nine members to study Texas water problems and make recommendations.

Other bills signed by the Governor included the following:

Providing a 40-hour work week

THE AMERICAN WAY

Lookin' 'Em Over!

for state employees.

Authorizing persons in the armed services, their wives, husbands, or children to enroll in state colleges and pay the same fees required of Texas residents.

Re-establishing the narcotics enforcement division of the Department of Public Safety, and providing penalties up to life imprisonment for sale of narcotics to minors.

Giving to existing soil conservation districts the $1 million remaining in the appropriation made two years ago to the Texas Soil Conservation Service.

Going into effect August 26 will be a new auto inspection law which is not as stringent as the one originally passed in Texas.

The annual inspection is not now required as a condition for purchase of car licenses.

Inspection is limited to lights, steering gear, brakes, horns, and windshield wipers.

Now created, as authorized by the legislature, is the Texas Commission for Alcoholism, which will continue the work begun three years ago by an unofficial committee.

The commission will plan with local agencies for clinical treatment of alcoholics.

The commission has no appropriation — it will depend on private contributions for its support.

Attorney General John Ben Sheperd set out by plane and boat to inspect the tidelands to which Texas will regain title by act of Congress.

The attorney general is a member of the state school land board, which will administer the tidelands. The other members are the land commissioner and the governor.

SHORT SNORTS: Boys took over the capitol when the Lone Star Boys State organized with Ray Masters of Brownwood as governor and Dick Chalmers of Houston lieutenant governor.

Attorney General Sheperd recommends that revenue from the continental shelf be utilized to raise teachers' pay.

Austin was host to volunteer firemen of the state, and during their stay the city broke out in a rash of fires.

State Health Officer George W. Cox predicts that the incidence of polio will be lighter this year.

The Texas Game and Fish Commission is working out plans to have open season on doe deer in Gillespie, Mason, and Kerr Counties.

The purpose is to stabilize the deer population, which is now too large for the amount of available food.

Brigadier General Gaston S. Howard of Longview retired from the National Guard and was promoted to brevet major general.

NEWS LETTER

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS
of the 18th Congressional District

The Racial Segregation Question

The recent decision of the Supreme Court upholding the provisions of District of Columbia laws adopted in 1872 and 1873 banning segregation in restaurants, bars, and other eating places is being hailed in many quarters as a victory over the South equal to the surrender of Lee at Appomattox Courthouse at the end of the Civil War.

These laws have been referred to as "District lost" laws, because they were passed by the District of Columbia during a short period subsequent to the Civil War when the District had law making powers. The decision has also furnished much encouragement to the proponents of "home rule" for the District of Columbia.

The pressure of the anti-segregation and "home rule" advocate forces has increased daily since the Supreme Court released that decision. Needless to say, the Washington hotel and restaurant operators are deeply disturbed as to how to cope with this new problem.

The law applies only to the District of Columbia and not to Virginia, which is just across the Potomac, nor to Maryland, which joins the District of Columbia on all other sides.

One of the best hotel dining rooms, which is in the shadow of the White House, has closed its doors. The story is going around Washington that immediately after the announcement of the Supreme Court decision, a large group of negroes requested reservations to be served in that dining room.

The Supreme Court postponed the case involving the question of segregation in the public schools in Washington. Many people not familiar with Washington think that the public schools here are non-segregated. Such is not the case; the schools are segregated and ample facilities are provided for the negroes.

Those who are seeking to abolish all forms of segregation have no doubt concluded that this recent decision of the Supreme Court is the beginning of a quick end to segregation on a nation-wide basis. In other words, they anticipate that the issue will be handled as a federal matter and that any state laws, rules or regulations will be subservient to and must bow to federal proclamation. This is centralized government, undiluted.

It could well mean the end of states' rights for all purposes. It will mean the adoption of FEPC legislation and substantially all of the so-called civil rights program proposed by the Truman administration and so resoundingly fought by the South.

On June 3rd, Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., who refers to himself as the senior congressman of all parties from Manhattan, and the first negro congressman to be elected in modern times from the Eastern Seaboard, wired the President of the United States, in which he scored two members of the President's cabinet and Admiral Boone, Chief Medical Officer of the Veterans Administration.

He demanded a decision by the President concerning a rumor that Secretary of the Navy Bob Anderson intended to maintain segregation in the Charleston, South Carolina, and Norfolk, Virginia, Naval shipyards; that Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, had issued a memorandum to the Secretary of Defense telling Mr. Wilson not to follow a presidential directive abolishing segregated schools on Army posts; that Admiral Boone had advised the Congressman that he would not change practices in veterans' hospitals but would maintain them on a "local customs" basis.

Congressman Powell requested a personal reply from the President. On June 9th, the Congressman received a letter from the President in compliance with his request, in which the President stated, and I quote: "I will carry out every pledge I have made with regard to segregation," and "I have made inquiries of the officials to whom you refer and learn that they are pursuing the purpose of eliminating segregation in federally controlled and supported institutions," and "To achieve our purpose we must plan and work together and with the victories 1 by 1, and not to be content until we have gained our goal."

On June 11th, the Congressman replied to the President in most complimentary terms for the reassurances contained in the President's letter. The Congressman also called upon the President in this last communication for executive action without waiting for any action by the legislative or judicial branches on five items:

(1) Continuation and implementation of the Fair Employment Practices Commission established by Executive Order 9980.

(2) Continuation and strengthening of the Committee on Government Contract Compliance.

(3) A change in the naval policy of segregation in shore establishments.

(4) Change of the policy of the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency of giving aid to segregated housing.

(5) That the State Department make changes in its foreign service employment policy, wherein the Congressman charges that of 6,000 employees only 50 are negroes.

To those of us who feel that the racial problems are matters that can be handled by the states and who believe fundamentally in the states' rights to handle these problems, the action of the Supreme Court and the administration is disturbing. The unceasing chipping away of states' rights by strained constructions of interstate commerce and other federal laws must inevitably result in a highly centralized government, against which so many of us have continuously fought and will continue to fight.

Company F To Leave Saturday

Captain Mabrey Vandergriff and approximately 52 National Guardsmen of Company F, 142nd Infantry Regiment will leave Saturday for summer camp at North Fort Hood. This is the annual summer camp, and about 5,000 men are expected to be there. About 1,200 men will be from this area in the 142nd Infantry Regiment. The Regimental Commander is Col. Everett S. Simpson of Amarillo.

The group will leave here Saturday evening at 9 o'clock. The National Guardsmen from Canyon will probably go by bus to Amarillo and board the train there. They are scheduled to arrive at Fort Hood by 12 o'clock noon Sunday, June 28. They should be back home Sunday, July 12, at 12:00 noon.

Company F is a rifle company and the first week of camp will be spent in the classroom. During the first week the men will receive instruction and training. On the second week the men will spend their time in bivouac.

Divisional review will be held on July 4th before Governor Allan Shivers and other dignitaries. During the camp the commanding general of the 36th Division, of which the organization is a unit, will be present. He is Carl H. Phinney.

Mrs. Tressie Rogers of Patterson, Calif., is visiting in the homes of her son, Gus Wesley, and her sister, Mrs. Maud Arnold, and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aldridge and children, Nancy Jean and Gary Paul, of Corpus Christi visited Mrs. Aldridge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Samples, last week-end.

Al/c Harry E. Campfield of San Antonio was here last week for his sister's, Avis Campfield, wedding.

Water Situation and Film on Lions Menu

Herschel Coffee, city commissioner, talked about the local water situation at Lions Club luncheon Wednesday. "I believe the people of Canyon should know what the situation is," Coffee said. He stated that consumption of water was slightly more than the wells were pumping each day when rationing took place. He explained that one of the foremost dangers of a low water supply in our big overhead storage tank is having a fire and not enough pressure to properly combat the blaze.

Lions also saw a movie, "Hot Stuff," shown by Bob Quail, representative of the Thompson Co. The movie was about the technical operation, internal combustion gasoline engines. Quail was brought to the club by M. D. Shepherd.

Visitors at the luncheon were Richard Boatright, guest of Gene Davis, Huelyn Laycock, superintendent of the public schools of White Deer who was the guest of Joe Gibson, and Jack Jackson, guest of Wayne Bagley.

WT Pool Open Nights Tuesday & Thursday

Borden Price, instructor of physical education at West Texas State College, has announced night swimming hours for the public at the WT pool. Starting Monday, June 29, the pool will be open for two hours each Tuesday and Thursday nights, from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m. for the public.

Hours have been arranged to benefit the working public who cannot enjoy swimming at any other time. These hours will be observed for the summer. Children 12 years of age and under will be admitted for 20 cents; 13 years and older, 40 cents.

Polio Conquering Vaccine May Be Developed Soon

Possibility of a vaccine to conquer polio and a discussion of ways to improve medical care for polio patients were high points of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, meeting in Houston Wednesday. Roland Black, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, attended the meeting.

It was brought out at the meeting that prospects were bright for a vaccine that will conquer polio. The vaccine is now in the experimental stage and has already been tried on 90 children with apparently safe results.

Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, explained to those present that work on the vaccine was being done by Dr. Jonas E. Salk, 38-year-old University of Pittsburgh scientist.

"The work has progressed far enough to indicate that he will eventually end up with a vaccine," stated O'Connor. There has been a 50 per cent drop in the number of polio cases in Texas so far this year as compared with last year. "In less than five years we will either have a vaccine or we won't," O'Connor said. Tests must be made on 1,000,000 children before it can be declared successful or unsuccessful.

Patterson Attends K. C. Convention

Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Randall county home demonstration agent, left Saturday for the National Home Economics Association convention in Kansas City. Miss Patterson went with four other agents from this area. These other agents were from Channing, Panhandle, Pampa, and Perryton. The convention trip will last one week.

Miss Patterson said the group was attending the national convention this year because Kansas City was probably the closest that the national meeting would be held to this vicinity. The conventions are usually held in Boston or Philadelphia.

The group traveled by private car, going in one car and returning in another. The Pampa agent left early but planned to return as soon as the convention is ended, so the group plans to come back with her. The agent from Panhandle left on Saturday and plans to extend her journey to other parts of the country following the close of the convention.

Palo Duro Players To Put on New Show During Next Week

After a week's lay-off, the Palo Duro Players will return to the Branding Iron Theatre stage Tuesday night when they present a domestic comedy, "Tommy," as the third scheduled production of the Summer Theater season at West Texas State College.

With the Amarillo Little Theater presenting "Buy Me Blue Ribbons" this week, the Players' marathon performances were interrupted, allowing a breather and more time to prepare for "Tommy."

The B.I.T. productions are running four nights each, opening on Tuesday and concluding Friday, with curtain time at 8:15. William Angus and Margaret Echols Moore, directors of the Summer Theater, have chosen "House Without Windows" for their final play, slated to open July 28.

Dealing with the foibles of doting parents attempting to select their daughter's husband, "Tommy" was written by Howard Lindsay and Bertrand Robinson. Comic plot of the story is heightened when the daughter uses various subterfuges to break away from her parents' choice to go with another man.

Lead roles of Marie Thurber and Tommy Mills will be played by Shirley Feierabend, Amarillo, who scored last summer as Laura in "Glass Menagerie," and Aven Smith, a freshman from Amarillo. Character leads of Mr. Thurber and Mrs. Thurber will be played by James W. "Rosy" Bates, veteran Palo Duro Player from Dimmitt, and Alice Aleeyne Kirksey, Booker school teacher who held a leading part in "Two Blind Mice," first production year.

The Deluge occurred about 2350 B.C.

School Board Is Making Study of Types of Buildings

Members of the Canyon school board are visiting various towns of the Plains in order to make a study of the type of buildings which has been erected and the type of buildings which is now under construction.

No architect has been selected for the proposed construction in Canyon, but this selection is being considered.

Supt. Joe Gibson states that a standard type of building has been adopted for construction in the Amarillo school expansion program. The local board will watch with a great deal of interest the contracts which are let in Amarillo.

A new contract has been made with West Texas State to take care of the grades now instructed in the elementary school in the Education Building. This contract runs for the coming year.

Mrs. A. K. Knott has resigned as mathematics teacher in the high school. Ray C. Wells has been elected to fill the vacancy. He has been teaching at Kirkland while his wife was a student in West Texas State and his three children attend the public schools.

The positions made vacant by the retirement of W. L. Vaughan and Mrs. John Davis have not been filled. Mrs. Glenn Waggoner resigned before the end of the school year and her position has not been filled.

Members of the school board and their wives were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham on Tuesday of last week where the regular monthly meeting of the board was held.

Caballero Talks on Art at Rotary Club Luncheon Tuesday

Emilio Caballero, faculty member of the Department of Art in West Texas State, spoke on Art at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday.

Dr. James P. Cornette announced the coming picture show at the Olympic Theater when all of the proceeds would go to sending Boy Scouts to the National Jamboree in California this summer. James Young and Alan Hanks were introduced as representative members of Troop 66 which won practically all of the first places at the Panhandle camp last week. The picture will start at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

Caballero explained the course which he was giving in the art department this summer especially for teachers who wanted to take something new back to their school children.

Art is a means of expression. It cannot be explained. There are more worthwhile artists and better art exhibits in the Panhandle than any section of the nation, believes the speaker.

He related his experience in teaching men at Dumas where lawyers, doctors, and business men are engaged in expressing their feelings through art.

The speaker gave a demonstration of work which was being produced in his classes. The methods used are new because the teachers are demanding something new, and this is the first time that any college has ever given such work.

Visitors were: Davis Hill of Galveston; Joe Hill of Columbus, Ohio; Dr. Tommie Miller of Galveston; Kenneth M. Laycock of Shamrock; Glenn Wright of Erick, Okla.; Joe Chapman of Perryton; Swede Tolzein, Roy C. Boger, Harry O. Trygg, Forrest Barnes, all of Amarillo.

Ban on Fireworks Generally Observed

It is against city ordinances in most towns of Texas to sell fireworks within the corporate limits. However, stands are set up outside corporate limits where fireworks of all kinds are offered for sale. Canyon has its share of such places along roadsides.

The problem of buying fireworks on the outside and shooting them within corporate limits is being solved in many towns by placing a heavy fine upon the parents of boys who shoot fireworks within corporate limits. Officers declare that it is impossible to collect fines from boys who shoot fireworks within city limits, but such fines are easily imposed and collected from parents who allow such practices by their children.

Clark At Work After State Test

Farm Bill

Senate last week passed the agriculture appropriations bill, voting $716,779,000 for the Agriculture Department for the 1954 fiscal year. That's about $20,500,000 below appropriations for the current year.

The bill provides $195,000,000 for payments to farmers carrying out soil conservation practices. The Administration had asked $140,000,000 for this purpose.

We were able to get the lending authority of the REA for the year 1954 increased from 30 million dollars — as provided in the House bill — to 45 million. Lending authority for rural telephones was raised to 67 million from the 50 million provided in the House measure. These sums will be used only for loans, of course — and the co-ops have an excellent record of repayment.

Wheat Prices

Wheat led a sharp downturn in commodities last week. Prices tumbled to some of the lowest levels in three years.

Prospect is that this summer's harvest will pile up a surplus of over 700 million bushels. As this is written, legislation is planned to set the minimum planting allotment for next year at 66 million acres. Without passage of this legislation, plantings would have to be reduced to 55 million acres. This might lead to growers disapproving marketing quotas and thus losing high level price support.

Cotton Quotas

Drastic cutbacks in cotton acreage in Texas and several other States would be prevented by passage of legislation introduced in the House last week.

This legislation would base acreage allotments on average production for the last three years, would limit reduction to 25 per cent in any State. The present formula would compel an overall cutback of 39 per cent in Texas.

Cottonseed

Farm Secretary Benson has expressed reluctance about continuing price support program for cottonseed. The present program supports cottonseed at 90 per cent of parity, the same level at which wheat, corn, tobacco, rice, peanuts and cotton are supported. But the law only permits — does not require — support for cottonseed.

About half the products from last year's cottonseed crop are said to have been turned over to the Government under the support program. Included in the Government's holdings are nearly a billion pounds of cottonseed oil. That's almost as much as is used in food products in a year's time.

Farm Fact

Report on the Farm Census of 1950 has just been issued. It shows that, when the Census was taken, Texas had 331,567 farms. That was 86,435 fewer than in 1940. But this smaller number of farms took in 7,705,642 acres more than the larger number of 1940 — for a total of 145,389,014 acres.

Reciprocal Trade Act extension for one year was approved last week by the House. Approval in the Senate is expected this week.

Texas State Society honored Gene Autry at our annual barbecue Saturday, June 20. Gene, a native of Tioga, in Grayson County, is as fine a fellow personally as he is popular in the entertainment world.

Democratic Floor Leader Sam Rayburn told the House last week that Democrats want to cooperate with the President. Said Mr. Rayburn: This present Administration needs more non-partisan help than any administration we have ever had.

Action on the Continental Shelf bill was listed last week as "must" legislation by Senator Knowland, Republican Leader in the Senate.

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost . . .

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

Rex Reeves, principal of West Texas Elementary School, wants to know how come the price of ice has increased so much. Rex is one of those fellows who loves his home made ice cream and the bags of crushed ice that cost 15 cents last summer are 25 cents this summer, according to Mr. Reeves. That's a jump of 66% in the price. There are probably others who would like an answer to the same question.

Charles Donnell and W. J. Wooten returned home last week after being in Dallas for the viewing of cinemascope movie. Cinemascope is Twentieth Century Fox's answer to three dimensional movies. Both Wooten and Donnell liked the picture very much and are of the opinion that cinemascope is the development that will be used by most theaters. The big item in favor of cinemascope is the fact that it's more economical than the three dimensional equipment. It just may be that this is the development that will lift the movie industry over the hump of that ever-growing threat called TV.

Dennis Ford made the rounds with Bill Sternberg and W. F. Haggard when they played off their golf match recently. Dennis says it was a game to see and remember. It seems that both men were in excellent form for the game. It was a tug-of-war in which Sternberg emerged victorious by a thin margin.

In case anyone has ever stood outside the Methodist Church during a Lions luncheon and wondered about the peculiar type of singing going on inside, they need to know that some of the Lions are very individualistic. If some of the Lions happen to want to sing, "Home on the Range," while others sing "When You and I Were Young Maggie," they simply look at the matter as a case of to each his own and sing it. Even though it doesn't sound too good to the audience that may be listening in, it gives the Lions a taste of individualism and that makes them happy.

No matter how modern times get there will always be old timers. One old timer that is a familiar sight on the streets of Canyon is John Knight. John has been carrying a walking cane about a year now, since having a stroke and not being able to use his legs as before. He was 86 when he started carrying the cane. He has been in Canyon 63 years, and during this time has come into personal contact with a kind of life that most people know only from reading history.

Going from the old to the new we come to the situation that almost invariably arises when there is an automobile crash. It seems there are a great number of curious people who simply cannot resist going to the scene of the accident and stopping just out of curiosity. These curious thrill seekers hamper rescue operations and reduce the chances of some of the injured to receive treatment quickly. This quick treatment sometimes is the difference in life and death.

It's a good thing to stop at an accident when you see that you can help out. But when there are already a large number of cars present and it's perfectly obvious that you can't do anything to help, it's also a good thing not to stop and get in the way of the ambulance and attendants.

At a recent crash between Canyon and Amarillo one person said it looked as if there were more than 100 cars stopped at the scene as he drove by. He didn't stop but as he drove by noticed that the ambulance has having trouble getting up to the crash for the victims. The thing to remember is, "You may be a crash victim some day."

Roland Black, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, was out of town a few days last week. To be specific, he left last Saturday and returned Thursday night. He was one of the delegates to visit the Rice Hotel in Houston for the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis meeting. He came back with the good news that we may soon have a vaccine to conquer polio. This will be a red letter day in the life of everyone.

Note to Gene Davis: In this column appears the names of some of the finest people in this town.

This little quip might also be valuable to Gene. If you want to stay young, associate with young people. If you want to feel your age, try to keep up with them.

If you want to be forgotten and soon placed on the shelf, just go around among people, talking about yourself.

Magazine Writer Believes That
Shivers Is Bound For White House

Allan Shivers' chances of becoming the first Texas governor to move to the White House are explored in the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

The analysis is made by George Sessions Perry, who reports that the 45-year-old Shivers handles Texans more skillfully than anyone since Sam Houston and that his political power is almost unrivaled since the time when Stephen Austin, who settled the place, was the government in person.

Shivers' success still mystifies Texans who have seen him almost completely ignore the tried-and-true techniques of vote-getting in Texas, Perry writes, in an article entitled "He's Got Texas in the Palm of His Hand."

"Despite his hesitancy to buddy-up to the man in the street or the furrow, he has become the top dog on the Texas political scene and an enigma with highly provocative potentialities on the national scene," the author finds.

"Not only has he won his own political wars by wide margins and become the titular head of the Democratic Party in Texas, but he was, as of November 4, 1952, the de facto head of the Texas Republicans as well," Perry continues. "Beyond question, it was he, more than any other person, who delivered Texas' 24 highly skittish electoral votes to the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket."

What matter of man can it be who rides the obliging Democratic donkey as he airily packs the elephant's trunk with Texas goobers? Perry says this question becomes one of national interest, for soon Shivers will have graduated from the highest of purely Texas political jobs, when he completes his present term of governor, having served in that office longer than any other man in Texas history.

"As politics is his profession, and one he has mastered cum laude, it's not likely that he'll want to confine himself to local affairs in the future," Perry adds. It is reported that such neighboring nabobs as Governor Robert F. Kennon, of Louisiana, are already touting Shivers as the next President of the United States.

And Perry points out that Shivers has never yet met his match at the polls.

Sign Painting Not Work of Senior Class

A 1953 graduate of Canyon High School recently reported that he saw a discourtesy paid the city of Canyon by a lower classman of the high school, using the name of the graduating class of 1953 as a disguise for his guilt.

Approaching the city water tower from the east, you will notice a sign in large, bold letters, which reads, "C. H. S. Seniors, '52-'53." That sign was not put there by a member of the senior class. It was painted by a freshman.

Behind the doors and curtains of the Canyon High School auditorium, names of ex-students and dates are inscribed by the hundreds. Yet, upon a thorough inspection of these names, no '53 graduates' name appear. The seniors wanted the junior and senior plays to linger in the minds and hearts of our audience, not on the stage of a public school.

Of course, the names of every member of that class could be written there without the knowledge of many citizens. Seniors did not want their names there or any place where they would be considered a discourtesy to the public.

This is a notice to the citizens of this community so that they may know . . . —Member Class of '53.

RING LOST 19 YEARS FOUND

Los Angeles, Calif. — Sam Lythgoe, 64, lost a diamond ring at the beach 19 years ago. A few days ago, Dorothy Rodgers, 15-year-old Girl Scout, found the ring on the beach less than 200 yards from where Lythgoe lost it. She traced it to him through an inscription inside the ring which gave his name and the name of his Masonic Lodge.

Hearing of her misfortune, the Des Moines Tribune ran a Page 1 article about it, reminding any potato-chip buyer who found a diamond ring in the bag that it was not a prize, but belonged to Betty.

July Fourth Big Rodeo in Clarendon

July 2nd, 3rd and 4th, are to be big days in the lives of the people of Clarendon, since these dates mark the time of the big Annual Fourth of July celebration, held each year in Clarendon. $3,500 in prize money should be incentive enough to attract top rodeo performers from the Panhandle and West Texas area, and with wild and "wooly" rodeo stock furnished by R. L. Pointer of Elgin, Okla., the citizens of Clarendon feel that the rodeo will be full of "Chills and Spills" for the entertainment of all.

There will be four night performances at 8:00 p. m. on July 2nd, 3rd and 4th with an added afternoon performance at 2:00 p. m. on July 4th.

In addition to the rodeo there will be other events of interest to everyone on July 4th. From 1:00 p. m. to 2:00 p. m. the old American Legion will be entertained at Legion Hall. "Cotton John" and Keith Lloyd from radio station KGNC will present the program for the old settlers. All old settlers in the Panhandle who have been in the Panhandle for 50 years or more are urged to register at 9:00 a. m. on the 4th, at the American Legion Hall.

Then at 12:00 noon, there will be a free barbecue for all. At 1:00 p. m. there will be a parade, with floats, horses, music, cowboys, and cowgirls, combining to make a parade that will tingle the spine and arouse the spirit of all kids from six to 60, who all play a part in the forming of the expression.

Many Cases of Dysentery Reported To State Officials

Commenting on the unusually high incidence of dysentery in Texas at the present time, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, described dysentery as being an infectious disease characterized by diarrhea, pain in the abdomen, and toxemia. It is caused by a specific bacteria or germ. These germs cause inflammation of the lining of the intestinal tract which produces pain throughout the abdomen and the discharge of many loose stools that frequently contain blood and mucus. Toxemia results from absorption of the poisonous substances produced by the germs.

"The germs gain entrance to the body through the mouth," Dr. Cox said, "and then make their way to the intestines in the same manner in which food does. When they reach the intestines they find conditions favorable to their growth, and there they establish themselves at the expense of the person infected and produce their harmful effects."

Dr. Cox warned that dysentery affects young children more often and more seriously than adults, frequently resulting fatally; however, he said it may occur at any age. It is usually more prevalent during the summer season, and the great number of cases now being reported are unusual for spring.

"The germ is always expelled with the excreta of persons sick with dysentery and may continue to be expelled for some time after the patient recovers from the disease. Those persons who still discharge the germs after they recover are called carriers, and they occur more frequently in this disease than in the majority of other infectious diseases."

"Food protection and adequate sanitary measures are more urgently needed now than ever before if we control the potential possibilities of epidemic dysentery in this State."

Jennings Owns Mystery Farm Of Last Week

Cass Jennings called at The News office last week to identify the photograph of his farm which appeared in the paper last week. The farm is located 10½ miles southeast of town. Jennings bought the farm in 1921 and moved on it in 1926.

When Jennings purchased the land it was unimproved. The place was not put under the plow until Jennings moved on it in 1926. The entire farm consists of approximately 700 acres and more than 200 acres are in cultivation. The farmer also has about 90 head of cattle and two saddle horses. Horses are one of the hobbies of Mr. Jennings and his other hobby is hunting.

Jennings is one of the pioneer farmers of this country. He came here in 1902. In 1915 he married Miss Vallie Dale and the couple has one daughter. Their daughter is Mrs. Dorothy Dunnagan, a school teacher in the Amarillo public schools. She follows in her parents' footsteps as both are former school teachers. Mr. Jennings taught the Palo Duro school, the first in this vicinity, and Mrs. Jennings taught at a later date in Umbarger.

The Jennings attend the First Christian Church. Mr. Jennings is also a member of the Farm Bureau. He says the weather is the driest he has seen since coming to the Panhandle. He has been reading The Canyon News for 44 years, and his favorite section is the editorial page.

Acker-Schoenenberger Nuptial Mass Said in Nazareth Holy Family Church

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT SCHOENENBERGER

The Holy Family Church in Nazareth was the scene on June 9 of the marriage of Aurelia Acker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Acker of Nazareth and Albert Schoenenberger of Canyon.

The Nuptial Mass was said by Rev. J. Arnold Carlson of St. Ann's Parish, Canyon. Servers were Jerry Acker, brother of the bride and Joe Schoenenberger, brother of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of imported chantilly lace over white slipper satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice. The long sleeves formed petal points over her hands. Her headdress was of nylon net with orange blossoms, with a flowing fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and Stephanotis tied in white ribbons.

Attending her sister as matron of honor, Mrs. John Warren of Hereford was attired in a gown of gold net over satin. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and baby breath, tied with white and yellow ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss May Ann Acker, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Leonard Bauer of Happy, sister of the groom.

Miss Acker wore a Nile green gown of net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of green carnations and baby breath tied in green and white ribbon. Mrs. Bauer wore orchid net over taffeta and carried orchid carnations and baby breath tied with orchid and white ribbons.

James and Charles Acker, brothers of the bride, served as best men. Ushers were Denis and Walter Acker, cousins of the bride.

In a dedicatory ceremony, Misses Irene Schacher and Grace Acker, members of the Children of Mary Sodality, presented the bride with a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The choir sang, "The Blessed Sacrament Mass," "Ave Maria" and "Mother At Your Feet Is Kneeling," accompanied by Joseph Acker, who also played the traditional processional and recessional marches.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Acker chose a navy blue crepe with pink accessories and white carnation corsage. Mrs. Schoenenberger, the groom's mother, chose a navy blue lace over taffeta with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

Breakfast was served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Acker. Co-hostess was Mrs. Joe Gidden of Lefors.

Dinner was served in the Nazareth Community Hall. A dance was held there in the evening, honoring the bridal party.

Mrs. Schoenenberger is a graduate of Nazareth High School and has been employed in Neblett Hospital in Canyon. Mr. Schoenenberger was discharged from the Army recently.

Following the wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will make their home in Canyon.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included friends and relatives from Canyon, Hereford, Happy, Umbarger, Snyder, and Lefors.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cummings returned Saturday from a vacation trip to Colorado and Wyoming. They visited their son, Clancy Stirling, and family at Ft. Collins, Colo., and were accompanied by them on a trip to Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming. Mrs. Stirling Cummings and son, Dudley, returned with them to Vega to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cayton.

WORLD REVIVAL

"Revive Thy work, O Lord," is a prayer God delights to answer. I need a revival. My church needs a revival. My community needs a revival... the whole world needs a revival. Revivals come in the hearts of people, not in the evangelist's suitcase. Jesus said, "All power is given unto me... go ye, win disciples." Revivals keep God in and the devil out. They are a cure for the blues, a tonic for the soul, and an antidote for sin. We need a world revival.

Population Grows In Spite Of The Drouth And Failure Of Dust Bowl

Raymond Holbrook, correspondent for the Star-Telegram, wrote the second article on the Panhandle for the Star-Telegram which follows:

People moan about dust storms in the Texas Panhandle and South Plains—but they're moving there anyway.

There are more people in the area now than there were when devastating dust storms raged across the Plains in the Thirties. And today—with scientific soil conservation and irrigation methods at their disposal—they don't have to fear another "dust bowl."

The plainsmen of today don't live in the same places and they don't have the same occupations as in the Thirties. There are fewer farmers but more storekeepers, industrial workers and skilled craftsmen.

When the United States checked its population in 1950, there were slightly more than 500,000 people in the 38 counties—starting with the tier of counties that include Lubbock and moving northward to the Oklahoma line—that arbitrarily can be designated as the Panhandle-Plains region, the area that bore the brunt of the duststorms of the Thirties.

Although the area's total population had increased, 29 of the 38 counties actually had a net decrease during the two decades from the 1930 to 1950.

Generally speaking, the "dry land" farming counties along the northern and eastern parts of this region showed the greatest population losses.

The greatest gains were made by these counties that already had fair-sized cities in 1930 and which have either (1) a high percentage of irrigated farmlands or (2) oil and gas and their resultant industries.

Counties without large cities but which have seen extensive irrigation have either shown substantial population gains or held their own. Generally speaking, counties above the Caprock fared better than those below the Cap.

When the 1930 census was made, population across this vast territory was not evenly distributed, but it was far more uniformly distributed than it is today.

The shifts have made the cities bigger and because of their industries more important in the region's economic life.

In 1930 Amarillo had a population of 43,132—about equal to the combined populations of Hall, Wheeler and Donley Counties, then important cotton producing areas.

But while Amarillo grew, these three counties lost more than one-third of their people.

By 1950, Amarillo with 73,737 had the approximately equivalent population of Wheeler, Donley and Hall plus 12 other counties—Collingsworth, Hemphill, Roberts, Lipscomb, Armstrong, Hartley, Sherman, Briscoe, Oldham, Hansford, Ochiltree and Carson. And if Amarillo's claims of additional growth during the past three years are to be considered you probably can add two or three more counties to this list.

Lubbock's growth in the two decades, percentage-wise even greater than Amarillo's, was due to irrigation, oil and industry. Plainview's growth can be attributed in a large measure to irrigation and agricultural industry. Oil and gas have been the basis for expanding Borger and Pampa.

Oil and gas are the story behind the spectacular growth of Moore County—whose population in two decades leaped from 1,555 to 13,349. Dumas, the county seat, was not even incorporated when the 1930 census was taken. In 1950 it had 6,118 and recent estimates place its population past the 8,000 mark.

That the shift from rural to urban has resulted in a concentration of population is emphasized by these facts:

Of the more than 500,000 people in the 38 county area, more than half of them live in the five counties with the largest cities—Lubbock, Potter, Hutchinson, Hale and Gray.

Nearly half live in cities of 5,000 population or more.

Forty per cent of the entire population of the 38 counties will be found in five cities—Amarillo, Lubbock, Borger, Pampa, and Plainview.

The days are gone when the plainsman you met was most likely to be a rancher or farmer. Today the odds are almost even that he is a city dweller.

SHIPS TO STORE GRAIN

World War II Liberty ships will be taken out of the James River reserve fleet this summer, reconditioned and then loaded with government-owned grain for which there is no elevator space. The grain was bought by the Commodity Credit Corporation under the Federal price support program and an estimated 11,000,000 bushels of it will be put aboard 50 of the Liberty ships. A similar storage program is being worked out in the Hudson River where approximately 75 ships are to be used.

PERSONAL INCOME

While farm income declined slightly in April, nonfarm income increased, giving a slight rise to total personal income during the month, according to the Commerce Department. Personal income in April was at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $283,100,000,000, up $300,000,000 from March and $29,500,000,000 above the rate for April, 1952.

WHEAT

The Agricultural Department has proposed a minimum annual wheat acreage allotment of 63,000,000 acres in 1954. There have been no quota on wheat-growing since 1941 and, since that time, the size of the American wheat crop and the surplus have grown. Wheat production in excess of 1,000,000,000 bushels is now indicated for 1953. This will increase the carry-over stocks to around 630,000 bushels on July 1, 1954, a record.

TO DEDICATE DAM

President Eisenhower and President Ruiz Cortines will meet on the Texas border between October 17 and October 24 to dedicate a border dam together. The new Falcon Dam on the Rio Grande River, now being constructed jointly by the United States and Mexico, will provide irrigation and power for both sides of the border.

CURB FREE VET CARE

The American Medical Association has called on Congress to end free medical care for veterans with most non-service-connected ailments. Such care, the Association says, puts the Government "in a gigantic medical program in competition with private medical institutions." It also puts a tremendous burden on taxpayers, the resolution said.

MEDICINE'S PROBLEM

Secretary Oveta Culp Hobby recently declared that organized medicine must meet the continuing challenge of the social-economic problems in a changing society or the solution will be taken out of its hands. The statement was made to the American Medical Association's House of Delegates.
